for a real frolic and fun combined with the most delightful of dancing with the most deverything ever given there by the hospitable army folk. The post hop from was never in such gala attire, not recome was never in such gala attire, not such the wonderful array of the throngs of dancers who filled the soon. The place little formed a fine setting for just such a gathering. The walls set hung with the tri-color of the country, and Christmas bella, with holly and mistletoe, formed a most effective central decoration. Beneath this gay cannot decoration. Beneath this gay cannot in the fun of the affair. Splendid music, jurnished by the regimental orchestra, made dancing a delight, and from the intention of the grand march until the unmasking, just before the supper hour, the scene was one of enchantment. The scuests were received as they entered by Captain and Mrs. John M. Palmer and Captain and Mrs. John M. Palmer and Captain and Mrs. William A. Cavanaugh, who were in evening dress, smasked, the two officers in their full dress uniforms. Early in the evening, therefore the spectators, and a decidion was rendered later as to the two rife winners. Some of the characters were wonderfully well sustained, and early of the costumes were beautiful in the extreme. Several friends went in pairs or trios, two of the funniest characters being Lieut. J. Duncan Elliott and Dr. Cook, as Buster Brown and Tige; in and Mrs. Frank L. Dodge, as a dainty baby and his nurse, with plenty of toys for the baby's entertainment; Hiss Charlotte Holmes and Miss Ethel Houst, two little maids from school; Mrs. Sugne Santschi, a baby doll in pink, with ber tiny doll sa a plaything; Mrs. Willie United Rempon, a Buster Brown in legical to the time of Louis IV. Miss Jean Russell, a potty, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, a magnificent Colonial lady; Mrs. J. Duncan Elliott, a former of the sugner, a such boy; Mrs. Gun

The seventeenth recital of the Sail Lake Sympliony orchestra Thursday afternoon afforded local music lovers a pleasant relaxation in the field of harmony and packed the Sail Lake theater to the doors with a politely enthusiastic audience. To the readings was imparted a sincerity and emphasis that lacked neither proper restrain nor well considered preparation of climaxes, possession a spontaneity and enthusiasm that completely captivated the immense audience. A few slight changes were made in the programme. Miss Florence Jepperson substituted "My Rosary" for "Sweetheart. Thy Lips Are Touched with Flame." She also sang H. Bemberg's Hindoo song. She sang her selections in clear and well enunciated English with an incisive quality of tone which imparts to her art the outward effect of authority. She scored a marked success with her hearers. Mr. Alfred Best sang Walther's Prize song from "Die Melstersinger von Nurnberg," in German, replying to the encore with the aria from "L'Africaine," in Italian. Mr. Best was apparently in excellent voice, displaying his vocal assets to fine advantage, his rich tenor seeming to possess all its former delicious quality. Mr. Flashman's flute solo was played with fine command of technical composition and musical distinction. Harp parts on plano were by Mr. Ed P. Kimball.

The instrumental numbers were the overture to "Egmont" (L. van Beethoven); Symphony No. 4, in A major (Mendelssohn); "Two Slavonic Dances" (A. Dvorak); "To a Wild Rose" (E. MacDowell); Solveig's song from Peer Gyntsuite No. 2 (E. Greig), and excerpts from "Faust" (C. Gounod). The splendid orchestra was under the conductorship of Prof. John J. McClellan. It never played better than it did on Titursday, the Symphony No. 4 being rendered most exquisitely.

The advance sale of seats for the engagement of Lillian Russell at the Salt The Girls' Friendly society of the Epis-opal churches will hold a cooked food sale at Walker's store this morning, be-sinoing at 10 o clock. The young girls of the Froebel society will give a cotillion for their own society and a few invited guests this afternoon in the bishops' building on North Main street. The affair will be at 2:30 o'clock and will be limited to young women, half of them impersonating the sterner sex. The affair is under the management of Miss Almina Taylor, Mrs. Lulu Keyting Snow, Miss Geneve Love and Miss Cora Bassett. Mr. A. N. McKay and children and Mrs. W. E. Vigus will leave today for Los Angeles to spend the winter. Horace Siegel will entertain a large party of his young friends tonight at a dance at the Siegel home on First South street.

Miss Dorothy Balley will entertain this afternoon at a bridge tea at the Balley nome on Twelfth East street. tertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Will Cramer of "A Stubborn Cinderella" company. Mrs. O. C. Beebe will be the hostess this afternoon at a party for Miss Rhea Nibley, one of the January brides. Miss Ruth Cain will entertain this af-ternoon at cards for Miss Edith Gard and Miss Charlotte Bothwell, who are home from Stanford for the holidays.

Bishop Laurence Scanlan left yester-day for Arizona to spend the rest of the winter there.

The advance sale of seats for the en-gagement of Lillian Russell at the Salt Lake theater opens at the box office of that playhouse this morning at 9 o'clock. Licutenant and Mrs. F. M. Miller will give a watch party Saturday night for the post people.

that playbouse this morning at 9 of clock. If Miss Russell's experiences on her present tour are any criterion, the chances are bright that the first day's demand for seat reservations will be the largest of the season.

With its big "osculatory beauty chorus," its clever young star. Texas Guinan, its clever plot, its lilting melodies, and its big company of noted actors and singers, "The Kissing Girl" will make its debut in Salt Lake City Sunday night, January 1, remaining four nights, with matiness Monday and Wednesday. This is a new Vienness comic opera, adapted for the American stage by Stanislaus Stange, who never yet has been guilty of turning out an unsuccessful piece. Mrs. Ben R. Hite is here from Denver and will spend some time with her son, B. G. Hite, and his boys while Mrs. Hite is away.

"The Traveling Salesman." which has been repeating its success of last season at the Salt Lake theater all this week, will conclude its engagement with the performance tonight, and the matines and night performances tomorrow. This repular comedy is a good evening's entertainment, particularly for those who have decided to see the old year out at some popular restaurant or the home of friends. CONFIDENCE IN DREYFUSS PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 19—A peculiar case of contract signing occurred today in the office of the Pittsburg Baseball club. Charles ("Deacon") Phillipps, the veteran pitcher, who has just returned from a hunting trip in Indiana, called to wish President Barney Dreyfuss a happy New Year.

"I wonder if you have the nerve to sign a blank contract and allow me to fill in the amount later?" asked Barney. The "Deacon" reached for the blank wrote his name on the last line and handed back the contract to Dreyfuss. The club owner filled out the document, and it apparently pleased the pitcher, for he smiled when he read it.

Tonight is society night at the Orphe-um, where the famous Imperial Dancers from Russia are the headliners. Next week George Beban, the distinguished character actor, and his associate players will present the impressive and absorb-ing playlet, "The Sign of the Rose."

The size of the audiences are increas-The size of the authentical art measuring nightly at the Colonial, where "A Stubborn Cinderella," the musical comedy, is playing. The advance sale for the balance of the week is heavy, and especially so for Saturday night, New Year's eve, where the people who intend to celebrate that evening may have an to celebrate that evening may have an enjoyable entertainment and then go to the cares.

BRYAN GIVES VIEWS ON GAINS BY DEMOCRATS

LINCOLN, Nob., Dec. 29.—W. J. Bryan has informed Albert J. Almoney of Baltimore, Md., that he cannot attend the Jackson day celebration January 17. Mr. Bryan says:

"It will be impossible for me to be present, and I hesitate to send a letter to be read at the celebration, lest it might prove a discordant note, if as I might prove a discordant note, if as I to be read at the celebration, lest it might prove a discordant note, if, as I would infer from the preliminary arrangement, those who originated it are dissatisfied with the last Democratic national platform. That platform was satisfactory to the party two years ago and is satisfactory to the rank and file now. The victory of last month was, in my judgment, largely due to the fact that several planks of the platform had already been vindicated by events and events have since the election vindicated other planks."
